REPORT ON DASARA DOLL FESTIVAL

Dasara is celebrated in diverse ways in different parts of our country, marking the victory of good over evil. It is celebrated for ten days with great fervor, joy and enthusiasm following different customs and traditions. It is the festival of glory and splendor, celebrating the occasion of the victory of Lord Rama over Ravana, which explains that good deeds will always prevail over evil deeds.

Celebration at school enlightens students with the feeling of oneness and also teaches them the significance of victory of good over evil. Children understand the importance of always being on right path which always leads triumph. The vibrant display of dolls at school doubles the energy of celebration in every child.
