

National Public School, Kengeri, Bengaluru
Report on Basant Panchami

“ The grace of prayer is an act of seeking to communicate with divine power ”

National Public School, Kengeri, Bengaluru, joyously celebrated the auspicious occasion of “Basant Panchami”, on 14th February, 2024. This vibrant festival holds deep cultural and religious significance. All students and teachers worshipped Goddess Saraswati- the embodiment of knowledge, wisdom, arts, and learning.

The celebration witnessed active participation from students of Grades 10 and 12, who sought the blessings and guidance for their academic journey ahead.

As the festival symbolizes the renewal of nature and the onset of new beginnings, the atmosphere was filled with enthusiasm and optimism. It served as a reminder to embrace learning, creativity, and the pursuit of knowledge in all aspects of life.