Report on Graduation Day

“Education is our passport to the future, for tomorrow belongs to the people who prepare for it today.”

National Public School, Kengeri, Bengaluru, organized “Graduation Day” with grandeur, to celebrate the milestone and educational achievement of its graduating students of Grade XII batch of 2023-24, on Saturday, 10th February, 2024, at its premises.

The ceremony was graced by the Chief Guest of the day, Mr. Basavaraj Shankar Umrani, a visually challenged human computer, known for his extra ordinary skills of mathematical calculation ability, and vast memory. The celebration was presided over by the school Secretary, Ms. Divya B S, Principal, Ms. Geeta Dikshit, Vice-Principal, Ms. Suman Singh, Centre Head of NPS Junior Wing, Ms. Poornima Ramesh, Parents. Coordinators, teaching and non-teaching staff.

The much-awaited moment was ushered by the agile anchors by inviting the dignitaries on stage to light the ceremonial lamp, and invoking divine blessings, through a melodious devotional song rendition by the students of Grades IX and XI, to spread positivity, followed by a formal welcome of the gathering.

The guest of the day left the audience speechless and wonder in awe when he displayed his prowess in mathematical calculations, and vast memory power by presenting it live, at lightning speed. The out-going graduates received showers of blessings from the school, as a token of remembrance, when memoirs were gifted to each graduate. The school secretary, Mrs. Divya B S, in her speech, spoke about celebrating not only academic achievements, but also resilience and determination in overcoming challenges along the way.

Nostalgic moments were created when the memories captured throughout the years-their sojourn at NPS Kengeri was screened and when the class teachers of Grade XII ‘A’ & ‘B’ shared their impressions on their class students. Kavin and Asmitha fondly shared their impression on their journey in the school. The parents of Mrudula and Vaishnav G Edapattu & Vismaya G Edapattu, expressed their gratitude towards the esteemed institution.

The students received “Jyoti Daan”, the symbolic light of knowledge from the dignitaries; followed by singing the school hymn in chorus, with pride, to- Reach out, Reach high, and Reach beyond! The school Principal, in her speech praised students for being sincere, hardworking and committed towards any given responsibility.

The vibrant cultural extravaganza by the enthusiastic students of Grades IX and XI and the musical musings of apt songs by the equally enthusiastic music teachers, was icing on the cake and made the day memorable for the students.

The students captured their memories with their teachers and friends and had a beaming smile on their faces when they left the venue, with memories to cherish.
