

National Public School Kengeri, Bengaluru

Report on SEWA by teachers

"The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others."

– Mahatma Gandhi

Charity is the gift which is given out of duty, at the proper time and place, to a worthy person, and without expectation of return, is considered to be charity in the mode of goodness. Helping others always produces success in life.

The teachers of National Public School, Kengeri, Bengaluru extended their selfless service by contributing towards SEWA to nurture our society, on 28th March 2025. The SEWA initiative was undertaken by the school to support two local ashrams- Vishwa Manava Seva Trust, Doddabele, Kengeri and Nisarga Seva Trust, Kumbelagodu, Bangalore.

Many items like sarees, dresses, towels, T-shirts, soaps, biscuits and nighties were donated to the people there. Lunch was also provided as part of the Ugadi festival celebration.

The event was a meaningful gesture, bringing joy to the people there. It reinforced the importance of giving back to the community and inspired compassion among teachers.
