KENGERI, BENGALURU

Report on Grade 1 Assembly

"The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams."

The morning assembly at National Public School, Kengeri, has consistently been an exciting and enriching experience for students of Grade 1, filled with a variety of themes and performances that celebrate important occasions throughout the year. Noteworthy commemorations include International Men's Day, where a skit was performed to highlight the importance of gender equality and the roles men play in society. Students also honored the legacy of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose on Netaji Jayanti with a captivating dance drama. The significance of the Indian Constitution was emphasized on Indian Constitution Day, reminding everyone of its vital role in our lives. Additionally, on World Soil Day, celebrated on December 5th, students presented on soil conservation and sustainable practices, reflecting their awareness of environmental issues.

On Choreographers Day, held on January 9th, the students paid tribute through performances that showcased the impactful contributions of renowned choreographers to the art of dance. Our youngest students in Grade 1 have also participated enthusiastically, sharing their thoughts on the importance of various topics.

Overall, the morning assembly has proven to be a resounding success, offering students a valuable platform to express their thoughts, learn about significant topics, and develop essential life skills. We look forward to many more engaging and informative assemblies in the future, and we extend our heartfelt gratitude to the dedicated teachers, students, and staff who have made these experiences memorable.
