Graduation day is a special day for all students where all the hard work and effort finally pays off. It symbolises the milestone in personal achievement and this makes it an incredibly meaningful day for every graduate.

Graduation Day, “Sankalpam Shubham”, was organized for the outgoing students of Grade XII, on 1st February 2025. The stage was set for the young graduates to be nostalgic and look ahead for the brighter days ahead. The special occasion was graced by the chief guest Mrs. Manjula N, IAS officer, the school secretary, Mrs. Divya B S, the Principal Mrs. Geeta Dikshit, the Vice Principal, Mrs. Suman Singh, the centre head of NPSK Junior Wing, Mrs. Poornima Ramesh, Co ordinators, Parents, teaching and non-teaching Staff and students.

The auspicious day began with lighting the lamp by the dignitaries, followed by a song rendition to receive God's blessings. After welcoming the gathering, the chief guest of the day was introduced by the Co ordinator, Mrs Malini K S and felicitation of the chief Guest by the dignitaries ensued. The chief guest of the day, Mrs. Manjula N, in her insightful perspective speech, gave message to the students to have ideal, and idol to emulate. She shared her life experience which led her to achieve her goal in life. The quote, “Winners don't do different things; they do things differently” by Nelson Mandela was quoted by her to inspire the students and have a never give up attitude. She emphasised on time management, and discipline in life. The graduating students were showered blessings from the school. The school secretary, Mrs Divya B S, in her speech, stressed on inculcating qualities like kindness, compassion, curiosity, respecting elders, seeking help when needed, and to venture out to expand knowledge. The parents of Inanakshi Rakesh and Tanureeth Jayakumar, shared their impression and expressed gratitude to the institution. The graduating students Abhishek Daftary and Shreela Kaudiki, shared their reflection on the school and were grateful for everything bestowed by the institution.

‘Jyoti Daan’ in which the light of wisdom was given to the graduating students by the dignitaries, was the highlight of the programme. The principal, Mrs. Geeta Dikshit, in her words of wisdom, encouraged the graduating students to set goals, dream, navigate the journey of life, spread positivity and joy, and bring harmony. She advised the parents to guide their wards. A video presentation on ‘Students’ Sojourn at NPSK’, created nostalgic moments to the graduating students and took them down the memory lane. The icing on the cake of the whole programme was the dance performances by the juniors to bid good bye to their seniors.

The Graduation Day celebration became a legacy worth memory, forever etched in the hearts and minds of graduates, symbolizing their achievements and the start of a new chapter.
