

NATIONAL PUBLIC SCHOOL, KENGERI, BENGALURU REPORT ON SARASWATI POOJA

Saraswati Puja, also known as Basant Panchami, is a significant Hindu festival dedicated to honour Goddess Saraswathi, the deity of wisdom, knowledge, and learning. The festival holds special importance in educational institutions, where students seek the blessings of the goddess for academic success and intellectual growth.

NPS Kengeri embraced this tradition with great enthusiasm, celebrating the occasion on 3rd February 2025, with a series of rituals and cultural activities that reflected the true spirit of the day.

The auditorium was beautifully adorned in vibrant yellow, symbolizing prosperity and the vibrancy of spring. The puja venue was elegantly decorated with flowers, rangoli, and idol of Goddess Saraswati, creating a serene and spiritually uplifting environment. The ceremony began with the chanting of Vedic hymns and mantras, invoking the blessings of the goddess. Faculty, students, and staff came together to offer their prayers, emphasizing the significance of knowledge and the pursuit of wisdom in one's life.

The students of Grade 7 contributed to the celebration with a heartfelt rendition of Saraswati Vandana, accompanied by a graceful classical dance. They also shared insightful information on the significance of the day, enriching the atmosphere with knowledge and devotion. The Principal's inspiring words further added a sense of warmth and meaning to the event. Traditional sweets or prasada, were distributed to all, and the participation of both teaching and non-teaching faculty highlighted the collective commitment in fostering a culture of knowledge, learning, and spiritual growth within the academic community.
