

National Public School, Kengeri, Bengaluru

Report on Children's Day

“Every child is a different kind of flower, and all together, they make this world a beautiful garden. A child’s laughter is like a ray of sunshine that brightens our day”

National Public School, Kengeri, Bengaluru, celebrated Children’s Day on 14 November 2024, to honour the spirit of childhood and commemorate the birth anniversary of India’s first Prime Minister, Jawaharlal Nehru. In keeping with the tradition of making this day special for the students, our school hosted exciting events- games, cultural performances, and delicious food that highlighted India’s diversity. It was an effort to bring a fresh perspective to the celebrations, adding an element of surprise and excitement.

The celebration commenced with the school assembly conducted by the teachers followed by euphonious musical medley. Thereafter the significance of the day was highlighted by the teachers. The event also included quiz and a humorous skit which was appreciated and applauded by everyone.

The day was packed with interactive activities that encouraged children to showcase their playful spirit. Students brought potluck dishes from various states, dressed in traditional attire, and shared insights about the staple food and recipe of their assigned regions. The classrooms buzzed with energy as children engaged in fun games, fostering appreciation for different cultures. The celebration emphasized on the richness of India’s heritage and the joy of togetherness.

Inter-house competitions were conducted for the students of Grades 9 to 12, All the four houses- Nicon, Regulus, Maxims, and Pericles showcased their talent, teamwork, and sportsmanship. The boys’ Volleyball match, in which the Maxims house won, ignited the field with passion and determination. While the girls’ Throwball match, in which the Regulus house won, showcased their agility and skill. The ‘Tug of War’ event was a great success showcasing the students’ physical prowess and teamwork, Maxims house boys and Pericles house girls were declared the winners. The event not only tested their strength but was also a celebration of unity and perseverance.

The Children’s Day celebration was a resounding success. The activities and events created a sense of unity and admiration for the boundless energy and creativity that children bring to the world. It not only fostered healthy competition but also created lasting memories for everyone.