

National Public School, Kengeri, Bengaluru

Report on Republic Day Celebration

“Freedom in mind, strength in words, pride in our soul, and love for our country”

Republic Day was celebrated on 26 January, to mark the adoption of India’s Constitution and the country’s transition to a republic on January 26, 1950. The Celebration was graced by Mrs. Geeta Dikshit, Principal, NPSK; Vice Principal, Mrs. Suman Singh and Mrs Poornima Ramesh, Centre Head, NPSK Junior Wing. The Co ordinators, staff and students were a part of this celebration.

The programme began with the Principal unfurling the national flag and lighting the lamp, followed by a spectacular band display. The students dedicated a melodious song rendition about patriotism. The significance of the day was shared by a few students and other students performed graceful dances on freedom and progressive India, as a tribute to India’s unity in diversity, and its rich cultural heritage.

The Principal, Mrs. Geeta Dikshit, in her words of wisdom, gave a message to the students to value the efforts of the freedom fighters, preserve our hard-earned freedom, believe in teamwork, work towards the country’s progress and do their bit to strengthen India’s Republic and Democratic values.

The event made the students to remember their duties as citizens, work towards building a stronger, united India, celebrate the power of our Constitution and the diversity that makes our nation unique.