

NATIONAL PUBLIC SCHOOL KENGERI, BENGALURU REPORT ON ANNUAL DAY (Grades 6-8)

SPANDAN-Feel the Value Vibes...

The Annual Day Celebration of National Public School, Kengeri—"Spandan: Feel the Value Vibes"—unfolded as a magnificent tribute to culture, creativity, and character. Over two enchanting evenings, the Junior Wing Auditorium transformed into a radiant haven where values met vibrancies, and every heartbeat echoed with youthful energy.

The celebration commenced with the ceremonial Lamp-Lighting, a luminous symbol of wisdom, hope, and new beginnings. A soulful invocation and warm welcome set the tone for an evening that promised inspiration at every turn.

A special moment of pride filled the hall as students with 100% attendance were honoured by the Chief Guest, Mrs. Divya B S, Secretary, NPS Kengeri—a testament to their dedication and discipline.

In her heartfelt address, the principal urged parents to walk closely with their children on the journey of growth. Her words—uplifting, sincere, and full of conviction—reminded students to dream fearlessly while anchoring themselves in timeless values. The message resonated deeply with every parent, teacher, and student present.

What followed was a vibrant cascade of performances—each a masterpiece of imagination and teamwork. Highlights such as "Melodies of Motion & Miles," "Songs of Smiles & Fellowship," and "Rhythms of Reel & Real" showcased students' brilliance in music, movement, and harmony. Energetic displays like "Grooves of Games" and "Netflixia Nach" brought contemporary zest to the stage, while dramatic renditions such as "Theatrical Thespian Thrill" and artistic showcases like "Artistic Aesthetic Aura" and "Scintillating Shopscape" added depth, color, and creativity to the evening.

As the celebration drew to a close, students expressed heartfelt gratitude to their parents, mentors, and the school management—acknowledging the unwavering support that shapes their dreams.

Spandan 2025 was more than an event. It was an experience—a tapestry woven with values, talent, togetherness, and youthful joy. It left the audience inspired, proud, and reminded that in every child's smile lives the promise of a brighter tomorrow.

"Every ending blooms into a new beginning—when hearts come together to celebrate."
