

NATIONAL PUBLIC SCHOOL KENGERI, BENGALURU REPORT ON CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

National Public School, Kengeri, Bengaluru, celebrated Christmas on 24 December 2025 with reverence and festive spirit. The programme commenced with a warm welcome, setting the tone for the celebration.

A soulful Christmas carol presentation filled the atmosphere with joy and devotion. Following this, the significance of Christmas was shared, highlighting the values of love, compassion, and sharing. A thought-provoking skit titled "Gift Matters a Lot" conveyed the message that true gifts lie in kindness and selflessness rather than material possessions.

An engaging dance performance added vibrancy and enthusiasm to the event. Further, the celebration was enriched by the principal's address, inspiring students to reflect on the true spirit of Christmas and carry its message into their daily lives. Finally, the programme concluded with a vote of thanks.

Overall, the Christmas celebration was a meaningful occasion that fostered joy, unity, and festive cheer among all present.
