

NATIONAL PUBLIC SCHOOL KENGERI, BENGALURU REPORT ON GRADE 9 D CLASS ASSEMBLY

Grade 9 D students took centre stage to tackle the most pressing social issues of our time, through a dynamic class assembly, in the last week of August 2025. The event was a resounding success, with each day featuring a unique and engaging program. These talented students showcased their creativity, empathy, and critical thinking skills, leaving the crowd inspired and motivated to make a difference.

From rap performance that rocked the stage to fashion show that strutted with purpose, comedy skit that tickled our funny bones, and mock show that sparked meaningful conversations, the student's exploration of social issues was a true celebration of youth activism and awareness. The assembly programme kicked off with a bang, with a rocking rap performance by Atharv Sunderraj, Avani, Namana, and Prakruthi. The rap, written and composed by Avani, left the audience mesmerized and set the tone for the rest of the week. The students highlighted the importance of social equality and sustainable fashion through a stunning fashion ramp walk. Chinnappa, Druthi, Shreeya, and Abhay Surya showcased their style and confidence while spreading awareness about crucial social issues. They also featured a hilarious comedy skit on the impact of fake news on people. Avani, Varahi, Ashith, Chaitanya, and others brought thunderous claps with their witty performance, emphasizing the need for critical thinking and social media literacy. A mock 'Big Boss' show was both entertaining and thought-provoking. Shragvi, Richan, Dhanush, Samrudhi, Vamika, and others tackled various social issues with humour and insight, leaving the audience pondering over the topics discussed.

Overall, the class assembly showcased the creativity, talent, and social awareness of the students.
