

REPORT ON QSHALA ORIENTATION PROGRAMME

An engaging QShala Orientation Programme was organised for the students of Grade 5 and the parents of Grades 4 and 5. The session was conducted by Mr. Kedar and his team from QShala, who introduced the programme in a highly interactive and enjoyable manner.

The orientation was filled with thought-provoking questions that encouraged students to think critically and participate actively. Students responded with great enthusiasm, eagerly answering the questions and showcasing their curiosity and confidence. Their active participation made the session lively and enjoyable. As a token of appreciation, several students were rewarded with exciting prizes for their correct answers and enthusiastic involvement, adding to the excitement of the programme.

Mr. Kedar and the QShala team also explained the objectives of the programme and how it helps students develop essential life skills such as logical thinking, communication, collaboration, and problem-solving. Parents appreciated the interactive approach and gained valuable insights into the learning opportunities that QShala offers.

The orientation programme was both informative and inspiring. It left the students motivated to participate wholeheartedly in future QShala activities and provided parents with a clear understanding of the programme's benefits. The session concluded on a positive note with enthusiastic participation from everyone present.

Communication is not just about speaking; it is also about listening