

NATIONAL PUBLIC SCHOOL, KENGARI, BENGALURU

Report on Independence Day Celebration

“Freedom is not just a gift we receive; it is a responsibility we carry forward.”

National Public School, Kengeri celebrated Independence Day with great patriotic fervor and enthusiasm, commemorating the spirit of freedom, unity, and national pride. The celebration brought together the school community to honour the sacrifices of our freedom fighters and reflect upon our responsibilities as citizens of the nation.

The programme commenced with the ceremonial hoisting of the National Flag by the Principal Mrs. Geeta Dikshit, along with the Vice Principal Mrs. Suman Singh, Centre Head Mrs. Poornima Ramesh, Coordinators, teachers, and students. The National Anthem was sung with pride and reverence, creating an atmosphere of patriotism and respect.

The march past by the students was a highlight of the celebration. Marching in perfect coordination and discipline, the students displayed confidence, unity, and team spirit. Their synchronized movements reflected the values of discipline, responsibility, and commitment that form an essential part of a strong nation.

The celebration was followed by a vibrant cultural programme presented by the Grade X students. Their performances beautifully captured the essence of India's rich heritage and patriotic spirit. The dance performance portrayed the diversity and unity of the nation, while the skit conveyed meaningful messages about India's journey towards independence and the responsibilities of the younger generation in building a better future.

The significance of Independence Day was highlighted through reflections on the struggle for freedom, the sacrifices of our national heroes, and the values of liberty, equality, unity, and democracy. The Principal's speech highlighted the sacrifices of our freedom fighters, the values of freedom, unity, responsibility, and patriotism thus encouraging the students to become responsible citizens who contribute positively to the nation and carry forward the vision of a strong and progressive India.

The celebration concluded with our National Song, 'Vande Mataram', on a note of patriotism, gratitude, and renewed commitment towards the nation. The programme served as a meaningful reminder that the freedom enjoyed today is the result of immense courage and sacrifice, and that every citizen has a role to play in preserving and strengthening the nation.

“The strength of a nation lies not only in its achievements, but in the character, unity, and dreams of its people.”