CLASS ACTIVITY - REPORT

Academic Year 2018 - 19
GRADE -VII 'A'

'It takes Discipline not to let Social Media steal your time'.

The students of Grade 7 A were given a golden opportunity to showcase their hidden talents through Class Activity.

Social Media has made relationships harder these days because conversations become texting, arguments become phone calls and feelings become status updates. In apparition of these lines an eye opener skit was presented by the students.

The activity was based on a skit which created awareness on how addiction of social media spoils and ruin people lives. The act showed the glimpses on how people are influenced and attracted towards gadgets, and consequences of this addiction. This act is a combination of comedy and sorrows which came together as a moral for Amar, Akbar and Antony's family. The act revolved around the lives of teenagers who invite their self-destruction.

The class activity provided students a platform to emerge themselves as responsible citizens and explore their hidden potentials.

'Break free from Social Media Addiction'.
