ASSEMBLY REPORT

Academic Year 2018 - 19

GRADE -VI 'C'

'The rights of every man are diminished when the rights of one man are threatened'.

_ John.F.Kennedy

Morning assembly undoubtedly holds the Numero Uno position out of all the routine activities in a school. It aids community participation and sharpen the skills of children on healthy competitive spirit. It is the first platform which is provided to young minds, boosting their confidence towards public speaking and imbibing a feeling of team spirit in their nascent mind.

Human Rights Day is observed every year on 10th December – the day United Nations General Assembly adopted, in 1948, the Rights. To observe this day Grade VI C presented their Class Assembly on 10th December.

Keerthana compered the assembly. Chandan dictated Pledge. To update news Neel Mohan was on News Desk. Thought for the Day was read by Anirudh. Information on the Theme was presented by Aneesha.

Soul Soup was presented, highlighting the importance of respecting and adopting Human Rights through a small skit which was narrated by Sreelakshmi. The students worked together as a team and presented a melange of thoughts, ideas and expressions.

The Assembly culminated with the rendition of National Anthem.

'Child labor perpetuates poverty, unemployment, illiteracy, population growth, and other social problems.'

Students of Class VI C presented a thought provoking Assembly on the topic- Child Labor on 11th December, 2016.

'Child labor is child abuse for which we have no excuse. Child's hands are too small to work; they look good holding a pencil'. In its endeavor the morning assembly was presented.

Sreelakshmi compered the assembly by inviting Vishruth Swamy for pledge. We had Keerthana on the News Desk to read the news. Thought for the day was given by Vidhmayee. We created awareness on the social issue as a threat to the country by updating our knowledge on the theme 'Child Labor'.

The children presented a soul - stirring thought that made everyone realize the need to eliminate child labor. They conveyed the message to educate children through an effective dance. The students carried placards showing magic words on Child Labor. The assembly was every bit emotional and therefore bagged applauds and appreciations of all.

The assembly concluded with the National Anthem.
