ASSEMBLY REPORT

Academic Year 2018 - 19
GRADE-VIII 'A'

'Christmas is a season not only of rejoicing, but of reflection'.

- Winston Churchill

Motivated with the words of Winston Churchill Grade VIII A Class Assembly focused on Christmas celebration, the eve of New Year and the message of peace spread by the Christmas spirit.

'Peace is not the absence of conflict but the ability to resolve conflict by peaceful means'. On 17th December students presented a talk on Christmas and its message of Universal Peace and Brotherhood. 'Christmas is given to us so that peace and hope lives brighter in our hearts'. Students also highlighted how Christmas is the harbinger of joy and peace to the world. Dishanth was the newreader, Samanvitha shared an inspiring thought and Surabhi narrated a wonderful Christmas story.

On 18th December, a nativity scene showing the three kings bringing presents to the infant Jesus was enacted by Rahul, Darshan and Pratham. The girls' choir comprising of Shravani, Neeraja, Inchara, Ardra, Chandana, Thanmayi and Anusha sang a Christmas carol and spread good hearted cheer by their lilting melody with the lyrics - 'Celebrate, Celebrate, Celebrate the victory of the Lord...'. Rohan gave a talk on the importance of Christmas in spreading cheer and goodwill throughout the world. Harikrishna spoke about the significance of Jesus Christ's message of Universal brotherhood.
