

NATIONAL PUBLIC SCHOOL

Kengeri, Bangalore.

DASARA-DOLLS SHOW

Dasara is a religious and cultural festival. This feast marks the victory of Lord Rama over Ravana and Goddess Durga over Mahishasura. It is a most imperative hindu festival celebrated every year by the Indian people all over the world.

'Gombe Habba' ('Festival of dolls') is a unique tradition practised during the Dasara festivities was recreated in the school premises.

The dolls were neatly arranged on a stepped platform which were contributed by the students. The students were given an opportunity to bring the traditional and mythological dolls depicting the stories about Navarathri Feast.

As always, the children were fascinated with the display of dolls representing scenes from mythological stories, village life and various modes of transportation.

“Pattada Gombe” (Raja Rani dolls) and other dolls were displayed.

The eye catching colours of the dolls were enjoyed and appreciated by the students.

