ASSEMBLY REPORT

Academic Year 2019 - 20

GRADE-VI 'C'

“Flowers...are a proud assertion that a ray of beauty out values all the utilities of the world.”

The assembly programme of Grade 6th “C” was scheduled from 13th August to 16th August on the topic “FRAGRANT FLORETS”.

The essence of the flowers in our life was depicted during the 3 days assembly programme. The students spread their fragrance and glorified the importance of flowers.

During the assembly our class florets shared the information on medicinal benefits, economical importance and flower show programme which will be held every year in Lalbagh and Red fort in Bangalore and Delhi during Independence Day and Republic Day.

On the special assembly day, a small skit was presented on the topic, “Fragrance” which conveyed the message that a person should spread good fragrance and influence people in a positive and productive way.
