

Report on Graduation Day-2019-20

Grade-XII

*'Graduation is an exciting time,
It's both an ending and a beginning;
It is warm memories of the past
And big dreams of the future.'*

NPS, Kengeri celebrated their Graduation Day for their first batch of Grade XII on 8th February, 2020. Shri Abhiram G. Shankar, Deputy Commissioner & District Magistrate of Mysuru was invited as the Chief Guest for the occasion. Mrs. Shailaja Somanna, The Secretary Mrs. Divya.B.S., and the Principal, Mrs. Geetha Dikshit were the esteemed dignitaries. The customary academic procession led Grade-XII Students and teachers to the venue of the function.

The evening gathering was assembled with assorted emotions. It was an occasion of exhilaration, anticipation and aspiration as the students were poised to slip past the secure surroundings of their beloved School and step outside. The Programme began with a melodious invocation and lighting the lamp. Mrs. Suman Singh, Coordinator welcomed the galaxy of the intellectuals.

The Chief Guest addressed the gathering with a positive tone by stating that achievement is not only reaching the goal. It should justify our purpose of achieving it. It was quite impressive to follow when he mentioned that at his home there is no room for T.V just to enhance social interaction. It was appropriately mentioned that the role of parents should be constructive and not with allegations.

The Secretary, Mrs. Divya.B.S addressed the gathering as a great day of celebration and heartfelt lifelong asset as it was the first batch of students of grade XII of NPS, Kengeri which believes that each child can blossom.

The Principal, Mrs.Geetha Dikshit greeted the gathering dedicating a special evening for Grade XII students. Stating that, 'we are architect of our own life' drew the attention of the students for time management and decision making.

Parents recounted the most loving memories of their association with our School along with their unforgettable memories of joy, of anxieties and of pride.

Students of Grade XII cherished their golden memories coupled with the pangs of an imminent parting and trepidation of the trail ahead. Dignitaries and teachers blessed the students' new journey by offering each a diya which would mark the carrying away the light of knowledge they had assimilated. The candle march was applauded as it propelled to illuminate the world that they will touch.

The programme ended with Vote of Thanks by Mrs. Malini along with her reflections as their class teacher which made them to feel nostalgic.

*'The hats whirled skyward,
Carried by bright, new hopes
And propelled by big,
Daring dreams!'*
