

REPORT ON GRAND PARENTS DAY

NPS Kengeri always upholds tradition, culture and heritage. To symbolize that the Kindergarten wing celebrated “TRADITIONAL TIES” – An event which was dedicated for the Grandparents on 7th September 2019, Saturday. This set a platform for children to express their love, affection and respect towards their Grandparents.

Grandparents are the most resourceful people and set a benchmark for future generation and also play a vital role in establishing a healthy society. Hence Grandparents Day was celebrated with a Theme of Festivals.

The auditorium was decked up to set a suitable environment for the theme of festivals. Tradition was highlighted in every aspect of celebration throughout the show.

Initially children heartily welcomed the grandparents by showering rose water, offering them flowers and colour coded badges with heart touching messages for them. The dignitaries commenced the event by lighting the lamp as light symbolizes sanctity and is considered auspicious.

The guest for the day Mrs. Shantha Radhakrishna, a renowned speech therapist and an educationalist followed by our secretary Mrs. Divya Avinash and our Principal Mrs. Geetha Dikshith, who graced the occasion.

Mrs. Shantha Radhakrishna enlightened the gathering through her informative speech and sharing her professional experiences with the audience.

Children were dressed in the traditional attire and hosted the whole event. They stole the show with their foot tapping performances in which four major festivals were showcased using colourful and attractive properties. This brought in festive mode amongst the audience which created lively atmosphere.

The grandparents not only enjoyed the dance performances of the children but also encouraged to participate in the games and quiz organized specially for them. They participated enthusiastically which made them feel younger at heart and cherished their childhood memories.

The grandparents were overwhelmed by the event and expressed their happiness for having been given such importance and also dedicating a day for them.
