

Teacher's Day Celebration

National Public School, Kengeri, Bengaluru

Report on Teacher's Day Celebration on 15th September 2021

“At times, Teachers can be Engineers, Doctors,.....an all rounder” was the inspirational dictum quoted from the Principal Mrs. Geeta Dikshit with which a gala celebration of ‘Teachers Day’ at National Public School, Kengeri commenced with.

‘To learn best from the upcoming instances’ is always one of the principle adapted by NPS, Kengeri. Amidst the mishaps of Covid-19 yet settling down, the journey had transformed Teachers through a new era of teaching .

The Management, Principal, Co-ordinators and all authorized superiors identifying the moments of hardships underwent by teaching fraternity and to re-energize the eternal re-inventing teaching spirits in them , the superiors at NPS, KENGERI strung up a pleasant surprise on the occasion of Teacher’s Day Celebration to all the teaching facilitators organizing many participating events at school premises and calling it a day off to refresh from routine tasks and breaking the monotony to re-train the teaching souls.

Be it a collage making of a chart or playing end to end ever popular Antakshari, all the teachers could were no less than a 5 years old to extract the joy of competing in the frolicsome games and winning accolades to their team. They did not miss to seek and draw entertaining moments of fun followed by a sumptuous meal while also sharing the factual experiences of online teaching parallelly chitchatting and relishing simultaneously.

To conclude with, the day shaped up memorably capturing glimpse of the event and anticipating eagerly the live school atmosphere with our students at the earliest.

