76th Independence Day Celebration

“Patriotism is not a badge that you should carry on your shoulder. You should carry it in your heart and let your actions speak for it”.

National Public School Kengeri celebrated 76th Independence Day with zeal and pride. Mr. Venkatesh B S, Director of Silicon Education Academy, Bengaluru was Chief Guest of the occasion. The Chief Guest was ceremonially escorted by the School Head Boy and Head Girl which was followed by the Flag Hoisting with the unison chorus of National Anthem.

The Guest received the honour of salute through the spectacular March Past by the students. The early morning warmth was touched by the patriotic fervor by the tri-color flag display from the students.

The celebrations resumed with the Cultural Programmes in the Main Auditorium. The Chief Guest 's address began with the chanting of 'Asatoma Sadgamaya..'. He defined the meaning of freedom in real sense as freedom with responsibilities. He also shed light on the great sacrifices done by our great leaders, their dedication and commitments towards the nation.

Meaningful Musical Medley substantiated the importance of the day. 75 years of Milestone-An Ode to New India, a video presentation had the glimpses of nations journey with the passage of post-independence era. A scintillating and colourful dance drama was presented on the theme of 'Significance of Tri-Colour'. The entire auditorium waved with tri-color as a mark of true patriotism and applause for the breath -taking performance of the students.

This Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav - completion of 75th year of Independence - concluded with the words of gratitude for making this special celebration a remarkable one.

“One individual may die for an idea, but that idea after his death incarnates itself in a thousand lives.”
