GRADE : III-C

Date : 19/09/2016 to 24/09/2016

Assembly is a platform to express student's thoughts and talents. The students of grade III-C conducted the assembly from 19th September to 24th September 2016, on the theme 'Season'. Each season brings a new cycle of life. The week's assembly included prayer thought for the day, news headlines followed by G.K. questions.

Along with this, Hindi Divas was observed on 20th September 2016. Students conducted the entire assembly in Hindi inclusive of pledge, prayer, song etc. on that day.

Teachers are an integral part of imparting value based education to students. A short story 'An Elephant Rope' symbolically represented that the urge to succeed has to be kept alive in spite of any failures also strive to achieve excellence always.

There was a special programme on 'seasons'. It was a short skit depicting how the seasons had quarreled among themselves and later how they got united. The students enjoyed the whole week's assembly programme and the school could witness some unique aspects as well.
