

NATIONAL PUBLIC SCHOOL, Bengaluru

ASSEMBLY PROGRAMME

Class & Sec : VIII / B Date: 27-06-2016 to 02-07-2016

Theme:- Girl child, the less privileged section of the society.

“If you educate a man, you educate an individual but if u educate a woman, you educate a family”

The entire week’s assembly was divided into various programmes based on the above theme.

- A declamation by Ananya S as Mary Kom, which laid emphasis on the right to education for girls and freedom to be given to the girl child to choose the field of their interest.

- JAM-Just in a minute.

7 boys of the class spoke about 7 world famous women, namely, Mother Teresa, M.S. Subbulakshmi, Sania Mirza, Aishwarya Rai Bachchan, Sarojini Naidu, Malala Yousafzai, Helen Keller and their achievements.

The programmed was supported by photo of the female celebrities.

- Talk by Rishikesh Ramesh highlighting the reasons why a girl child is less privileged in our society?

The talk was accompanied by motivational quotes.

- Talk by Prathyusha S Rao on The National Girl Child Day and International Day of Girl Child and it’s significance.

Rights of a girl child were also highlighted.

- An inspirational dance on the Rupaiyya song, by the girls of the class.

This song and dance conveyed the message that a girl child is a very strong part and parcel of the society.

To sum it up, the entire class enthusiastically participated in all the events pertaining to the topic.

The Thought for each day and GK questions were also based on achievements of women from various walks of life.
