

Greetings to all !!!

Dear Parents,

“Art is an expression of culture”

After a short break , we are back to books with a renewed zeal and fresh mind. However school life becomes monotonous if there is no fun.

So we have started the preparations for the Annual School Day. As parents, you may have realized that students are getting caught up in the frenzy for the Annual Day.

“A bird does not sing because it has an answer. A bird sings because it has a song”.

Let us encourage our children to showcase their creativity and also empower them to achieve their academic potential.

Let the beginning of this school term be a judicious mix of work and play.
