

Time...

Time reveals a thousand smiles
To learn the lesson in life, awhile
Come what may you go along believe in yourself it'll be a beautiful song
Time allows you to walk a while
With all your strength; an extra mile
In your heart let hopes always pile
learn to be a winner and your future shines
Time showers an opportunities at your door
Its your wisdom to grab it and strength to hold
And that's how a beautiful future of yours; you mould making your loved ones proud of you and your story, retold.

National Public School Kengeri Budding Literates' Creativity Unleashed

FRISKY FEAT LITERARY CLUB

Dear Readers,

The Frisky Feat Literary Club team is thrilled to bring out the much awaited first issue of the NPS, Kengeri Newsletter. This issue is a result of a lot of efforts, not only by the team but also many fellow students of our school.

In this first issue, we have put together something of interest to everyone. There are stories and poems. Not surprisingly, the issue covers writings done in last couple of months by different age groups. We are elated to provide a platform and give scope for creativity to our young achievers of today.

From the desk of Principal

As we draw curtains on the first year of our National Public School, Kengeri, Bengaluru-60 we are glad to present before you the first issue of our exclusive edition for this academic year 2015. Creating a conducive environment for a good moral foundation along with skills that would equip students to create a sound footing for themselves therefore creating a niche, has been our focus in the first academic year.

Broaden the vision and deepen the roots!

Frisky Feat is an effort to recall some happy memories. We would like to share few proud moments with our little ones. It is a heart-warming sight every morning to see our little bundles of joy enter the school gate with a one million dollar smile. What a wonderful beginning they give to the day! Infact, it makes our day! The smile speaks for itself the creativity, artistic skills, theatre abilities, aesthetic sense all hidden within.

We believe our children are a volcano of talents and capacities. Identifying & harnessing them to reach great heights is our duty & responsibility. The school and parents have an uphill task. Let's join hands & take these frisky feat's to avenues where sky is the limit.

Let's catch them young and foster their talents!

Mothers.....

Sometimes mothers never change when it comes to their children
It is quite possible that these famous persons' mothers would have reacted this way...

✓ Humpty Dumpty's Mother

"Humpty, if I've told you once, I've told you a hundred times not to sit on that wall, but would you listen to me? Noooooooooooooo"

✓ Columbus' Mother

"I don't care what you've discovered, Christopher. You could have at least written a letter when you were away."

✓ Marys' Mother

"I'm not upset that your lamb followed you to school, Mary, but I would like to know how he got a better grade than you."

✓ Napoleons' Mother

"All right, Napoleon. If you aren't hiding your report card inside your jacket, then take your hand out of there and show me."

✓ Albert Einsteins' Mother

"But Albert, you are going to be in the group photo. Can't you do something about your hair? At least comb it down a little bit."

✓ Mahatma Gandhi's Mother

"Mohandas, please at least put on a shirt before you go out. It looks so indecent when you walk around in just your dhoti, and what will the neighbours say?"

✓ Important points for parents to remember:

- ✓ Everyone in the family needs time with each other. Don't wait until a problem takes place. Better interaction means happier children.
- ✓ Quality of time spent with children should be based on what they want to do, and what makes them happy.
- ✓ Listening to the child is as important (or more so) than talking or lecturing to him.
- ✓ Children also need space. Sometimes it is better to be away from them. Give them the strength of independence.

Parents with Children

Quality time spent with children does not only mean going out for a party or picnic. It means frank discussions, open sharing, & an expression of each other's feelings.

Love and Time

Once upon a time, there was an island where all the feelings lived: Happiness, Knowledge and all of the others, including love. One day it was announced to the feelings that the island would sink, so all of them constructed boats and left, except for love. Love was the only one who stayed. Love wanted to hold out until the last possible movements.

When the island had almost sunk, Love decided to ask for help. Richness was passing by in a grand boat. Love said "Richness can you take me with you?" Richness answered "No I cannot, there is a lot of gold and silver in my boat. There is no place here for you."

Love decided to ask Vanity who was also passing by in a beautiful vessel. Love said "Vanity please help me!" "I cannot help you Love you are all wet and might damage my boat", Vanity answered.

Sadness was close by so Love asked "Sadness can you let me go with you?" Sadness said "OhLove, I am so sad that I will go by myself!"

Happiness passed by Love, too, but she was so happy that she did not even hear Love when she called her. Suddenly there was a voice, "Come love I will take you. "So blessed and overjoyed, Love even forgot to ask the elder where they were going.

When they arrived at a dry land, the elder went her own way. Realizing how much he owed to the elder, "Who helped me?"

"It was time", Knowledge answered. "Time?" asked Love. "But why did Time help me?". Knowledge smiled in deep wisdom and answered "Because time is capable of understanding how valuable love is."

My Mother

When I see my mother,
I can't think on anyone other.
She is so beautiful to see
That I forget everything around me.
When she blushes,
Everything around hushes
A smile with a dimple,
Makes everyone trip & tremble!
When she yells and cries
It's a signal for not to lie.
A path she shows & guides
For me to be best in my life.

First Day of the School

First Day of School – Cool!
It's my first day of school
And I know every single rule.

Like when to say please, thank you,
Excuse me and god bless you.

Of course, I won't pick my nose,
Nor will I stamp on anyone's toes.
When I want to ask a question,
my hand will go up politely,
And I practice sitting tightly.

When it's recess we'll play and run,
I'm sure I'll a lot of fun.

Now that I'm back from school,
All I can say is "It was very cool!"

Cricket

Cricket is all about 11 players
Who make their mark with this game. Players make their way
People enjoy with full gay
When the batsman is in full swing
The fielders are in a ring
The bowler is really in a hurry
To get the batsman out with a worry
Cricket is all about hitting or quitting.

Poem – Parts of Speech

A noun tells us a name,
Like street, town and lane.
The place of a noun a pronoun stands,
As he or she claps their hands.
The adjective describes a thing,
As magic wand or bridal ring.
The verb means action, something done,
They read and write, badly, well.
How things are done the adverbs tell
As quickly, slowly, in many ways.
The preposition shows relation,
As in the street or at the station.
Conjunctions join in many ways,
Sentences or words and phrase.
The interjection cries out, "Oh! Ah! Hurray!"
I need an exclamation mark.

Music

Where words fail... music speaks
Music expresses that which can't be put into words and that which can't remain silent.
Music is the movement of sound to reach the soul of education of its virtue.
Without music, life would be a mistake.
Music washes from the soul, the dust of everyday life.
Music can change the world because music changes people.
Music gives a soul to the universe, wings to the mind,
flight to the imagination and life to everything.
The best thing about music is that, when it hits you, it doesn't pain.
Nothing is beautiful and true except music.
Life is for the living. death for the dead, let life be like music, death a note unsaid.

The Chronicles of the Crow

Once upon a time, in a magical land where fairy tales come true, where streams of clear water flow from every direction, where elves and pixies danced and lollipops hung from trees, lived A CROW!!!!
The best thing about music is that, when it hits you, it doesn't pain.
Nothing is beautiful and true except music.
Life is for the living. death for the dead, let life be like music, death a note unsaid.
He swooped over the tree tops in search of friends and people in need. One normal morning he saw an old man and the old man saw him. The old man looked poor. He was sad, hungry and thirsty. So the crow flew to the fruit stall and got baskets of fruit.
The man was delighted and the crow was happy seeing the man happy.
Both of them never met each other again but lived happily ever after.
